Elektro Honors SEL Brazil for Excellence in Substation Automation Services

PULLMAN, WA — May 13, 2011 — Schweitzer Engineering Laboratories, Inc. (SEL) announced today that SEL Brazil received the prestigious Supplier Award from electric energy distribution company Elektro. This is the third consecutive year that SEL Brazil has been recognized for its excellence in substation automation services. On April 28, during an award ceremony in Campinas, São Paulo, SEL Brazil Director Fernando Ayello accepted the award from Elektro's Alvaro Murakami. The award recognized SEL's high quality work in the category of Network and Substation Services.

The partnership between Elektro and SEL Brazil began in 2007 with a contract for the digitization of 30 substations. Since then, SEL Brazil has been a provider of modern automation solutions for the utility's substations.
