Schweitzer Wellbeing Center to Offer Aquatic Fitness Classes This Summer at Reaney Pool

PULLMAN, Wash. — June 5, 2026 — The Schweitzer Wellbeing Center (SWC) will offer its popular aquatic fitness program this summer in partnership with Reaney Pool, providing a fun way for participants to stay active and connected while the facility is closed for renovation.

Classes will run June 22 through Aug. 21 and will be held Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 to 11 a.m. at Reaney Pool, 690 NE Reaney Way, Pullman.

Participants may join on a drop-in basis for $4 per class or purchase discounted class packages. To ensure a smooth check-in experience, advance online registration and reservations are strongly encouraged.

For class packages and reservations, visit swc.clubautomation.com.

About Schweitzer Wellbeing Center

SWC is a community-focused health and fitness facility in Pullman, Wash., owned and operated by SEL. The facility was originally funded by a generous gift from the Schweitzer family and opened in 2000, before being donated to the Pullman School District. In 2025, SEL renewed its commitment to community well-being by acquiring and revitalizing the center, ensuring modern amenities, expanded programming and a safe, welcoming environment for all ages.
